Where we need to process special category data we must fulfil an additional lawfully process, which is detailed below.

Our lawful basis for using this data

We only collect and use personal information about you when the law allows us to.

Most commonly, we use it:

- When you have given us consent to use it in a certain way;
- To fulfil a contract we have entered into with you;
- To comply with a legal obligation;
- To carry out a task in the public interest.

Less commonly, we may also use personal information about you where:

- We need to protect your vital interests (or someone else's interests);
- We have legitimate interests in processing the data.

To process special category data we need an additional lawful basis. We will process special category data most commonly where:

- We have your explicit consent;
- The processing is necessary under social security or social protection law
- We are processing it in the vital interests of an individual;
- We are providing health care or treatment under the responsibility of a health professional.

Where you have provided us with consent to use your data, you may withdraw this consent at any time. We will make this clear when requesting your consent and explain how you go about withdrawing consent if you wish to do so.

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using personal information about you overlap, and there may be several grounds which justify the school's use of your data.

Where we are processing data on a legal or contractual basis, if you choose not to share this data with us, we may not be able to carry out our obligations under our contractual relationship with you or engage you as a governor.

Collecting this information

While the majority of information we collect from you is mandatory, there is some information that you can choose whether or not to provide.

Whenever we seek to collect information from you, we make it clear whether you must provide this information (and if so, what the possible consequences are of not complying), or whether you have a choice.

How we store this data

We create and maintain a personnel file for each governor in paper copy and/or electronic form on the Schools' computer system. The information contained in this file is kept secure and is only used for purposes directly relevant to you holding the position of governor.
